24,000

1. SUPER DINO - Not disgraced in his first two starts in the UK and was 5th last time out at Brighton over 1050m on 20 April. Should make a bold bid dropped to a claimer

2. UNDER THE SEA - A two-year-old gelding by Showcasing out of Tasman Sea who is making his debut. Watch the betting

3. GALLIUS - Has only been modest in two starts and was 5th last time out in a Conditions race at Saint-Cloud over 900m on 12 April. Improvement is expected and can contest the finish

4. AMORE MIA - Showed some improvement when fourth last time out at Salon-de-Provence over 1100m on 3 April. Should be even better this time

5. ETOILE GRISE - A two-year-old filly by Gengis out of L'Etoile du Soir who is making her debut. Watch the betting

6. TWILLY LIGHT - Showed some improvement the second time out when fourth in a Claimer at Saint-Cloud over 900m. Can make the frame again

7. FISFUL OF LOVE - Has not shown much in her two starts and was 7th last time out in a claimer at Saint-Cloud over on 19 April. More is needed to win

Summary: SUPER DINO (1) hasn't particularly shone in either outing across the Channel but trainer Amy Murphy's success with two-year-olds, especially on French soil, is such that his chances in this opening event must be taken seriously. AMORE MIA (4) didn't go unnoticed in a competitive field at Salon-de-Provence and she is likely to play a leading role here with a repeat of that performance. GALLIUS (3) and TWILLY LIGHT (6) are improving and should make their presence felt if building on the progress of their recent displays.

Summary: SALVA MEA (8) revealed considerable means as a two-year-old last season and confirmed that promise with an encouraging 2nd on her reappearance, so she is good value to open her account in this maiden event. SOUPLESSE (12) was stretched by the Saint-Cloud mile last time but will appreciate this shorter distance and ought to pose more of a threat. PEMBA BAY (7) should also fare better on a firmer track and can get into the picture, while KEW BRIDGE (1) is another to consider in her first outing on the grass.

Summary: There are three standout candidates for success in this claimer. ALCOTAN (4) was somewhat disappointing at Deauville recently but is capable of considerably better than that performance suggests and deserves another chance, especially in a race of this nature. JACK OF TRADES (1) has made encouraging improvement in consecutive outings at this level and will, on the evidence of both runs, fight for victory once more. ALAMSAR (5) has experienced varying fortunes since winning a PSF handicap at Deauville during winter but retains the means to play a leading role in this grade. INATTENDU (7) completes the shortlist in his first appearance at this level.

C4 - PRIX DES NOISETIERS - 1200m (a6f) - TURF - Handicap - Flat - EUR € 25,000

1. LOYAL PRINCE - Won a 1200m handicap at Marseille-Borély in February and has maintained consistency/competitiveness under a resultant penalty. Didn't go unnoticed when 6th over 1300m in a handicap at ParisLongchamp on 18 April

2. ALNOORY STAR - Consistent filly with sound references/form credentials, including a last-start 4th in a 1400m turf handicap at Chantilly on 15 April. Will be a factor

3. FORTUNATE SON - Has finished 4th in three consecutive recent outings - the latest over 1000m at Moulins on 14 April - and in both handicap appearances before that. Candidate for success

4. CHUNKA WAKAN - Won a minor conditions race over 1200m at Pompadour last year but has been soundly beaten in both handicap appearances this year, the latest (7th) at Le Croisé-Laroche on 20 April. Watch for now

5. RUMPLETEAZER - Relatively consistent performer, albeit without success. Improved in first-time blinkers to finish an improved 5th over 1100m in a handicap at Le Croisé-Laroche on 20 April

6. BOTTOMS UP - Didn't go unnoticed when finishing 5th in a 1000m conditions race at Moulins on 14 April. Could earn a cheque

9. CRYSTAL OF TIME - Caught the eye with an improved/encouraging 2nd over 1100m at Angoulême on 14 April. Needs to confirm that progress to be competitive on her handicap debut

10. PURA VIDA - Unplaced in all three appearances and is hard to recommend, even on her handicap debut, having finished 9th in a 1600m claimer on heavy ground at Compiègne on 29 March. Others preferred

11. BAWE ISLAND - Seldom finishes far off the mark and hasn't gone unnoticed in recent handicap appearances - the latest (3rd) at Le Croisé-Laroche on 20 April. Dark horse

Summary: Speedy FORTUNATE SON (3) has, on several occasions, shown he possesses the means to win a handicap of this caliber and today could be his day. He will, however, have to thwart the expected challenges of ALNOORY STAR (2), who has proven her competitiveness in the handicaps recently, and RUE MIA (7) whose form and experience at this level should stand her in good stead once more. Having finished 2nd on this course at the start of April, LOYAL PRINCE (1) could also play a leading role, especially from a favourable inside stall.

Summary: Recent Le Croisé-Laroche scorer SWEET AS (4) seems good value to defy the penalty by winning again. TWO TWO TWO (8) gave the selection plenty of cheek that day and ought to make a fight of it once more. LOUVE DREAM (5) finished 5th in the same race but was unlucky not to have posed more of a threat and could do so on this occasion. Veteran GLICOURT (2) retains the means to make his presence felt too.

- 3. STEWART KOPELAND - Finished 6th on debut course and distance last month but failed to build on that encouragement when soundly beaten (16th) over 2000m at this venue on 13 April. Others preferred

- 8. EARLY SPIRIT - Finished a close-up 4th behind the top two picks on 25 March, so is better than his disappointing last start (9th) on 13 April over 2000m on this course suggests. Not taken lightly
- 9. RED NUREYEV - Finished an encouraging 4th on debut at Aix-les-Bains last year but failed to build on that promise when only 8th over 2000m at Vichy on 2 August 2023. Absent since, so is best watched for now

16. SABLE DU PYLA - Gengis gelding on debut for trainer and owner Pierre-Louis Guerin who has engaged Stéphane Laurent to ride

17. VERDANT LADY - Nicolas Clément-trained Dubawi debutante whose dam placed at Group III level. Shouldn't be underestimated

18. SULTANE OF SWING - Benjamin Marie rides this Seahenge on debut for trainer J. Macedo Costa Oliveira. Best watched for now

Summary: MACCARELLU (5) has shown enough promise/ability by finishing 3rd in both outings to suggest he is more than capable of opening his account in this maiden event. ODEMAR (6) only marginally edged the 25 March meeting with that rival but will have his work cut out confirming that form. EARLY SPIRIT (8) was ridden too aggressively in that race and should also have a role to play if ridden with more restraint. VERDANT LADY (17) appeals most of the three newcomers and can't be underestimated.

- 13. BIG FREEZE - Seldom far off the mark in handicaps at this level but hasn't been seen since finishing 11th at Saint-Cloud over 1300m on 24 November. Watch for now

Summary: COLD PLAY (4) caught the eye with a good finishing effort at Chantilly recently and, from the ideal No 1 stall with Cristian Demuro in the irons, should fight for victory. MAGIC SWORD (6) is out of sorts but has the means to play a leading role in a race of this nature, especially off a reduced mark and with Maxime Guyon engaged. Summary: Well-traveled FOLLOW YOU (1) lines up here in good form and physical condition, having finished 2nd in consecutive outings and he wouldn't be winning out of turn. LADY VALOU (11) fits a similar profile after successive runners-up finishes and is likely to make life difficult for the selection, especially in receipt of 7kg. GRACE OF CLIFFS (7) caught the eye last time (5th) and ought to acquit herself competitively after two much-needed comeback outings, while consistent MIAMI BEET (3) makes a quick reappearance and can get into the picture at longer odds.

Summary: MORHIB (6) has caught the eye recently with encouraging 4th-place finishes in consecutive starts and seems close to success at this level, especially with the step up to this distance also likely to serve him well. ZELZALITA (11) and JOYCE GALESTE (13) should pose a threat to the selection, given their form and experience at this level. BONNIE HOPPS (1) thrives on this Fontainebleau track and is another capable of playing a leading role with the benefit of her rider's 2,5kg allowance.
