8 Ingvar has done well and looked in good shape several starts in a row. He is a quick starter and a contender for the lead despite this number. Has taken four of six wins from there. 9 Grude Enok is used to win and he won seven of 16 starts last year. He is a strong finisher and an early challenger. 5 Vy Jerven has had to qualify after three straight gallops. Has good capacity though and Mats E Djuse is a plus. 12 Älvsnabben M.R. is a good sprinter.

2 Sartre is well drawn and owns good capacity. He can do it tough and has good chance if he is fit. 6 Månskenstindra was matched against tough opponents as a young horse and has only two victories in his career. She faces easier horses this time. 7 Showmethcash got tired on the ice track last time but has a run under his belt now. 8 Farao Eagra is poorly drawn but has sufficient capacity to be in the mix.

8 Re Vital got a good journey three wide last time, but he decided very easily. He has earlier beaten most of these opponents and has a good chance to do so again. 5 Basisten has been on the way up at the end after illness and could find the lead over this short distance. Could be difficult to reach then. 4 Sjö Prinsen doesn't win often, but he has competed in tough companies. 6 Ava Modde gave up from the lead last time but has got a run under his belt.

3. S.G. Edison comes from a V75 victory. The five-year-old finds it hard to fight for the lead here, but he likes to attack from behind. 5 Mellby Melon galloped with energy saved on the home stretch last time in the V75 and she is better than the latest results show. 2 Closetoamillion could reach the front and prefers to run in that position. Her three victories have been taken there. 9 Deuce is a quick starter and could reach a nice position here.
