2 Escargoat Gar got a bit fiery last time since the start was delayed, took a few missteps from the start, but came back well afterwards. Tough and strong, our pick. 7 Incomparable was very strong last time in the first American bike. He reached the front and was never threatened. Could repeat that here. 12 Mr Reddington is gifted but has been a scratch for lameness and has not started for a long time. 3 Titan Journey also returns after a break but belongs to the better ones in terms of capacity.

9 Beauvoir gets the tip in a race where Mattias Djuse plays the main role. The horse was not fit last time against top horses but is working well. 1 Global Fragrance is the stable very pleased with. Is the only 3-year-old here but has competed against the best of his year and can lead all around. 10 Jes Angel has done well at the end against good horses. Easier now, but shoes and an ordinary sulky are a big minus. 11 La Fille de Niky galloped fighting for victory last time. Good form, but still a question mark.

3 Izhiah Zet has a nice task. The horse is promising and after an early lead last time he won after an 11-finish. First barefoot all around now and the first closed bridle too. Top chance. 12 Coolman Evo was promising last spring but has had problems. Is heading towards the heats to the Kriteriet and could get a defensive trip. 10 King of Trotter has good speed and got locked in last time. 6 Leaderboard has good capacity but has been a bit up and down.
