1 Pingis was a bit fiery in the lead last time but he scored an outstanding win and impressed. Very good chance from the lead, but somewhat tricky number since, for example, Kron Vici Star is faster from the start. 2 Gatling won from the pocket in the V75 last time and could get a similar trip here. Good form and should be considered early. 5 Great Time Trot is good for this class and got locked in last time in the V75. Might have to do it tough here. 7 Frankie Godiva got locked in the last comeback and is now driven by Stefan Persson. Warning.

4 Zebulon should have a good chance if he is as good as second last when he won a V75 race from the outside of the leader. Impossible draw in a V75 final last time. Good task. 7 Västerbo Voodoo is not reliable but has good capacity. We think he might be allowed to take over the lead and then he is dangerous with Carl Johan Jepson. 1 Mack Love will certainly get a good trip from here and is possible in that case. 2 Böhmaren has two runs under his belt now and is at least an outsider with this nice number.

6 Young should have a really good chance. He convinced last time and doesn't face very tough opposition now. Carl Johan Jepson is the driver today. 5 Keep Loving You won easily at this track in early October. Good draw and will certainly get a nice trip. 10 Maze Craze Ass won with trainer Rick Ebbinge at Vaggeryd. The horse is an early choice in this company, but needs some racing luck from here. 3 Le Roi Mearas has not impressed so far but can certainly do better. Outsider.

3 Ebba comes with two wins and was in full control from the lead last time. Will probably get an offensive race and from the front she will be hard to beat. 1 Mellby Luna has not won yet but is approaching the first victory. Should get a good trip here with Björn Goop. 2 Önas Tindra is fast from the start but maybe settles for the pocket behind our favorite (open stretch)? Has to be considered regardless. 10 Termagant took two straight wins in June but has galloped after that. Has a run under his belt now. Outsider.
