8 Zätamustangen has shown good capacity, especially when he runs in the lead. Nine of his career's thirteen victories have been won from the front and as the favorite for the lead, he is the horse to beat. 2 Mellby Kaliber is used to win and has good skills. Good for this class and early choice with this number. 6 Mon's Tornado comes from a strong win in the lead. Quick starter and likes this distance. 10 TimetoshineBonanza has seven victories in ten attempts on Swedish soil. Possible in case of high pace.

RANK

7 Leglign was too fiery in the lead last time and wasted a lot of energy along the way. Is very good for this class but needs to stay calmer. Good chance in that case. 4 Ramiro Bro has competed in tough companies. Has good capacity and is well drawn. Challenger. 8 Sandsjöns Cantona is good for this class and comes from a stable in top form. 3 Cricetidae Ås opens fast and likes to run in front.

5 Zirkon Klipp is probably the best horse but he has also been a scratch after the last race. Faces nice conditions here and is our winner. 10 Finally J.M. scored a strong win second last and finished well from far behind last time. Has been matched in clearly tougher companies and steps down in class this time. 6 C'est Mon Tour returns after a layoff, so the form is hard to predict, but Djuse this time is an advantage. 1 Cobol Infinity has done alright in much tougher companies than she faces now.

4 Snap Attack comes from victory against easier opponents, but the impression was good and he has previously shown good skills. On the way up again and together with Djuse, he won't be easy to defeat from the lead. 6 Ytowns Dragon is consistent and good and last time he put in a strong performance as third in tougher company. 2 Born In Sweden has the only victory of his career over this distance and the he won from the lead. 1 Phoenix Wibb finished fast to victory over the home stretch and beat Leglign. Early choice.

4 Hurricane Godiva was allowed to dictate the pace in the lead last time but did well. The four-year-old has shown good capacity for this class and once in the lead, he will not be easy to reach. 8 Papillon E.V. is not bad and this year he has been at least third in 18 out of 20 attempts. Strong finisher. 1 My Memphis has put in a couple of good efforts and from a nice draw she fights for a place here. 7 Maverick Meerkat has been improved of late and is coming off two straight wins.
