RANK

8 Frodo Baba scored a nice win from the lead last time and had also shown good skills before that. If he finds his way to the lead, he has a good chance of winning, but he is possible with another victory too. 2 Blixt Lane scored a nice win in the lead last time. Good lane and with his starting speed, he gets a nice run. 3 Orosei Boko won convincingly last time and owns nice speed resources. 9 Follow Him scored a strong win last time and quick pace would be an advantage.

RANK

4 Alberdi Wine won in a good way last time after a trip from behind until the home stretch. He has shown good speed resources and is our pick. 2 Taurus Crown gave up from the front last time and before that he sprinted well. Regardless of journey, he is an early choice. 5 Fallsfromthefalls was brave from the outside for the leader second last and finished quickly last time. 1 Pirat Brodde scored a really nice win, where he answered the challenger in a nice way over the home stretch .

RACE 6

V64-3

Volt 2140

RANK

7 Azzurro has earlier done well after a pause and faces quite easy opponents. From lane seven he should get a nice start and from the front he has a good chance. 1 Global Everytime is the main challenger to the stablemate and he also returns after a break. From the lead or pocket, the four-year-old has to be considered. 12 Con Padre has been matched against tough opposition lately and is now stepping down in class. 6 J.F.K. won from the position outside of the leader last time. Worth a warning.

RANK

2 Eketorpets Uno likes to run in the lead where he has one win and two podium places. From the front, he is the horse to beat. 7 Mclroy has made three races after a layoff and is getting closer to victory. 11 Fighter Kronos is still more strong than fast and over this distance he can pass all. 10 Lövdala Kenji looks strong type and the distance should suit the horse well.
