2 Jackpot Mearas made a comeback for his new trainer last time after a very long layoff. Won straight away then and was very good. Has got another break after that and form is obviously a question mark. In this company, however, he should have a very good chance. 1 Heavenly Flavours has shown good form at the end. Good draw and good new driver. Challenger. 3 King of Sand has had a pretty good season. Two runs under his belt now. 7 Our Pleasure was early defeated last time but can do a lot better.

5 Malala Pellini won directly in her debut last time. Took the lead and was never really threatened although she was challenged a bit on the home stretch. Our winner. 8 Nice Steel also won from the front last time. Was challenged toughly but took a close win. Run under the belt now. Challenges with the right trip. 3 Lainy K.W. was second last time after a layoff and should also be on the way up. 1 Spring On won with this driver from the lead second last and will probably try to reach the front from here.

1 Alvena Roy won the debut but galloped directly last time. Chases revenge and has a good lane. 2 No Mercy Newport makes his Swedish debut for new trainer Markus Waldmüller. Has done well in Germany but has not raced since July last year. 10 Farrokh Bulsara did well in July but has galloped since. Driven by Stefan Persson this time. 6 Sir Douglas Laday is not bad either. However, made his last start in February and has got a new trainer since then.

4 Global Edition has a very good task here. Won in a good way last time and has got a nice draw. Good chance to score another victory. 8 Iginla Zet makes his debut for a new trainer and was previously trained by Daniel Redén. Good for this company but has a difficult draw. Can open fast though. 9 Starboss Tommasi was second behind our pick last time after a nice finish. Should be even better with that run under his belt. 5 Cohiba L.G. has only one win in 18 starts but seems in good shape. Good lane.
