9 Furiosa did well from the back of the leader second last. Last time she did not convince but she can do better than that. Nice number for a defensive trip this time and should be counted early. 7 Datastrom Am put in a good race after a mistake last time. Has good speed and is an early choice this time if he does not gallop. 5 Kahnawake did alright second last and should be followed with this good draw. 3 Rio Luca gave up after a trip from third on the outside last time. Easier opponents now and should not be overlooked.

6 Bellamy McLin has now two runs under his belt after a break and his form is on the way up. In the seasonal debut she got locked in on the inside and finished with energy left. Last time, she sprinted alright at the end. 4 Enya Vendil followed decently last time and should be counted early behind our pick from a good draw. 3 Mari has completed her annual debut and is certainly better with that run under the belt. 9 Kattbo Dream sprinted decently last time and could get a nice trip from the back here.

9 Kingen in Ima finished alright on the home track last time after a trip from second on the outside. Will defeat many here. 7 Turi Follo did not find room at the end last time and looked nice over the finish line. Is an early choice in this company and should be considered. 2 Ginetta Scoop was too fiery in the lead last time and had to give away the lead. Wasted a lot of energy and was tired early. Favorite for the lead and is possible if she stays calm this time. 5 June Grace got tired after an offensive set-up last time. Should not be overlooked but needs some luck.

4 Bottnas Ironman has now got two runs under his belt after the break and his form is improving. Tough conditions money-wise but belongs to the better ones. 1 Nike McLin followed alright last time. Ha been drawn to a nice lane here and can open fast. 6 Life Care One was on the outside of the leader in the last run but did not trot well with 800 meter to go. Fast enough to be in the mix here. 11 Mixflower galloped under attack in the last turn last time. Looked good then and is possible here but needs some racing luck.
