7 Mellby Lurk won two out of six starts last year and at the end of last season he was also matched against tougher horses than those he meets now. If he only gets a decent trip, he should have a good chance of finishing to victory. 1 Viking Lane goes all the way regardless the journey. If he manage to reach the front, he could be hard to beat here. 2 Sigel Av Doc was a bit slow last time, but had done well in the starts before. 10 Gunvald Tartar is good for this class but the form is a question mark.

11 Guldhagens Pirat has got two runs under his belt. Is both strong and fast and can do it tough. Good chance to fight for victory. 12 The Teknologen had got different training before the comeback second last, which seems to have had a positive effect. 7 Ellbert has not yet shown the same speed as our top duo, but is strong and has the right attitude. 5 Stormyrans Lasse will reach the front and is then not easy to beat.

5 Lyckans Judith has not yet won, like several others in the race but she has been matched quite tough lately. She could now find the lead and once there the first victory can come. 11 Diva Lane has got it right this year. With the right journey and a similar finish as in the last run, she could score the second win in a row. 7 Muscadelle should be counted on in a race like this, if she finds her way back to last year's form. 4 Cobol Infinity is a bit slow but also strong. Can do better than shown.

7 Kruson is our pick since he can open fast and he is our close favorite for the lead in this race. The distance is probably not a problem, but if, on the other hand, Prinsen Af Sola reaches the front, it will become much tougher. 2 Prinsen Af Sola sprinted well in the Double Cup final last time behind Brageson and is challenging for both the lead and victory. 4 Sjöprinsen now meets older horses and makes his debut in the circular start. 11 Ängsbrage is much better than the latest results show and this distance is an advantage.

10 Take This Society started his career very promisingly with Frode Hamre. If he lives up to his capacity, he should be in the mix despite this number. 6 Young Mistress may not be in top form, but has great skills. She should fight for victory with the right journey. 2 Mellby Interest faces quite tough conditions money-wise in this race, but she is strong and can do it tough. 12 Global Dash meets easier opponents than she uses to do and should not be discounted despite this draw.

3 Perfect Harmony made his debut for trainer Tomas B Nilsson last time and gave a very nice impression. The horse can open fast and should have a really good chance from the front. 4 Global Easyrider has got two tough races at the end, but completed them both in the best way. 5 Patrick Silvio sprinted very well second last and is an outsider if the favorites makes a break. 1 Glendalough finished well last time a bit behind Global Easyrider.
