9 Laredo Boko is our winner. Is strong and has followed well at the end without winning. A little easier this time and could get an offensive run again. Per Lennartsson is the driver now. 2 King of Greenwood has a much better draw than his main opponent. Driven by Ulf Ohlsson and with an American bike now. 8 Comes with Age won three V75-races last year and is good for this class. Not reliable though and bad draw. 7 Inspiration has a run under his belt for his new trainer. Was brave then.

5 Miss Legende is trained by Daniel Redén and has a suitable task here. Closely defeated from the lead last time but takes revenge now. Top chance in the lead. 7 Promise 'em comes from a comfortable win and seems gifted. Finds it hard to beat our pick from here though. 6 Youcan'taffordme has not competed since November and is obviously hard to predict. In this race, she should not be discounted completely. 4 Urasie has not won yet but has done well. Run under the belt now and good draw.

5 Caradja is our winner. Has done well and won from the lead this year. Opens fast and could lead this throughout. 1 Huit was surprisingly good last time and set a new record. Now Magnus A Djuse is driving and that is exciting, as is this position. 9 Jean P.Hill doesn't win often these days but he is worth a warning. The horse is in good form and will now be driven by Ulf Ohlsson. 10 Global Billboard is also good but needs some luck from here. Wins quite often but is waiting for the first victory of this season.

1 Global Eye Candy is our pick in this stayer race. Will probably get a good run and there are question marks around the best horses here. 13 Mahadour has not competed since August but is certainly well prepared by Claes Sjöström. Competed in the V75 last summer. 10 Ever Loving is also matched in the V75 and he resumes from a spell too. Debut for Andreas Lövdal and will probably run barefoot. 7 Hoohoo Haahaa has also been racing in the V75. The form is a question mark though.
