TIMEFORM VIEW:

Sir Mark Prescott's IMMEDIATE EFFECT looked a good prospect when overcoming inexperience and a troubled passage to make a winning debut at Wolverhampton and is fancied to follow up at the chief expense of Sahara Dancer who has the form to have a big say. Jack Jones' new recruit I Can Imagine is also in the mix along with Sex On Fire.

TIMEFORM VIEW:

A case can be made for a few of these but Gemma Tutty's course winner ENOLA GREY rates the pick of the weights so edges the vote from the returning Mrs Morrell who remains with potential for the powerful Gosden team. Executive Decision and Triumph of Peace also warrant plenty of respect in this competitive handicap.

GBI RACINGGoing: Standard

The all-weather track at Southwell goes left-handed in a flat mile-and-a-quarter oval which has a run from the home turn of three furlongs and a spur to provide a straight five furlongs, those drawn low have often been seen to good effect on the sprint track. The fibresand surface used until August 2021, which produced a lot more kickback than the ones used at the other all-weather courses and lent itself far more to the course specialist, has now been replaced with tapeta.

Marco Ghiani

Showed a good attitude to get off the mark at Kempton (6f) on penultimate start and not disgraced in stronger company when sixth of 10 in handicap at Chelmsford (6f) 18 days ago. No reason why he won't be competitive again back at the minimum trip.

Hooded for 1st time, first run since leaving K. R. Burke/after 16 months off understandably looked rusty when eighth of 9 in handicap at this C&D (80/1) 27 days ago. This should reveal more.
