RANK

5 Heineken Bishop is a good V75-horse and he won from the outside of leader last time after illness. He should be even better now, but ice track now and not sure that he reaches the front. 3 Francis Cocco is a very quick starter and should go for the lead here. He followed well last time and likes the ice track. 1 Stonecapes Thor was not remarkable last Saturday but is well drawn and better than the latest results show. 9 Vincent Cheri puts in consistent and good efforts all the time and has the right lane for a defensive trip here.

15 Sundbo Komet has been really good under the saddle but is showing good sulky form too. Second last he finished fast a bit behind the leader and this Saturday he was good again. Good task. 10 Ängsthea is a stable companion and an early contender. She got a tough final lap and took over the lead towards the final turn but got defeated at the end. 4 Eldar kept up the pace well and beat Ängsthea last time. Now, however, he faces a 20 meter tougher handicap. 12 Forspärla belongs to the best mares of Sweden and did well last time.

13 Global Adventure was among the best horses of his year when he was younger. Last time he finished strongly but got closely defeated. Easier this time! 12 From The Mine is still going strong and now he is showing good form again. Finished well last time and is an early contender here. 10 Joshua B.R. was second in a Norwegian Derby heat behind winner Kraesj a couple of years ago and he stands this distance. 8 Deliver has two wins in a row but is clearly at his best from the front. Tougher now.
