RANK

2 Jo Black comes with five straight wins. Will probably not find the lead here and he has not used this starting method very often lately. Can absolutely win, but is not a banker for us. 8 Rossi Garline did just fine a bit behind the winner in the last V75-race. With just a few horses in the first circle, he will reach a nice position right away. 1 Putte has been a scratch before this race, but should be ready for a good performance. Prefers to run in the lead. 3 Franklin Zet is consistent and good and better than the latest results show.

4 American Cash is a very quick starter and has a good chance of reaching the front. Has only been defeated once in that position. 5 El Emperador was mediocre last time. Now it's a more suitable distance and he'll challenge our pick seriously the first bit. 3 Latin Lover Helvin has got three runs under his belt and sprinted well in the last start showing 13/700. American bike is a plus. 9 Lobelia has become a bit fiery in the lead at the end. Will now attack from behind and can use the energy in the end instead.

7 Safira Diablo returns after a four-month break and is well prepared. Showed nice speed resources last year and won in the V75 from outside the leader on December 23rd. 5 Eclipse Roc thundered to the lead last time and took an easy victory against easier opponents. Is a bit tricky, but has good speed. 6 Entrance is on the way up and can do better than last time, although she wasn't bad then either. 3 Dencos Rioja is an early contender too as she could be dangerous from behind the leader.

Can do it tough and will fight for victory. 9 Chocolicious is also a tough mare who is not afraid of this long distance. 8 Underground Artist makes his seasonal debut, but showed last year that he belongs to the better three-year-old horses.
