RANK

4 Never Give Up did alright last time as fourth. The four-year-old is a quick starter and has taken all three victories from the lead. Good chance if he gets there. 2 Venezuela Broline has good skills and if he shows the same form he had during the summer, he is an early contender. 7 Scarlet One was unlucky last time and had energy left over the finish. In the mix with the right journey. 9 Veerbeek is good for this context, but what about the form?

12 Sir Flax held strongly as second last time. Is not completely reliable, but without a mistake, he will be hard to resist during the final lap. Good chance if he behaves. 6 Sabaton has not won a race for a long time, but is good for this company and normally in the mix. 8 K.G.H. Niceman scored a good second spot three starts ago and should be followed here with a similar effort. 9 Dance To The Music gets a defensive trip here and is primarily a place bet.

2 Last Gift C.G. galloped straight away last time. The race before the mare looked really good without being empty. Nice lane and this looks like a nice task. Our pick. 8 Abbe Av Sveden followed well last time and is in better form than the results show. In the mix here. 4 Yes Sun is better than shown at the end. New driver and has to be considered from this starting position. 7 Dakar Brodde returns after a break. Has to be considered immediately.

12 Dalila Jet has a tough starting position, but the form is slightly better than the results show and we will not be surprised if the mare scores her first victory in an otherwise wide-open race. 4 Sharp Object followed decently from the front last time and if he gets there again, he could lead this throughout. 3 Global Excitement was not at his best last time. Has got a break after that and is normally a horse for the battle for victory. 9 Bacio Pellini has a good lane for a defensive trip and could surprise with the right backs.

5 Fläsk Ken came back after a long break last time and did really well as fifth. Should have progressed a lot with that run under his belt and is our pick here. 2 Navy Zon has not convinced lately, but should be considered early in this type of race. 12 Pure Muscle competed in V75 races during the summer and is used to much tougher opponents than what he meets here. 8 Pandroklus Eck finished well last time. In the mix despite this starting position.

RANK

2 Zoey Jovalley found an early lead in the last race and won in a comfortable style. The mare can open quickly and should have a good chance to reach the front in the first turn and is then the horse to beat. 1 Sancho Lee followed well last time. Has shown nice times and should be considered early from a good starting position. 3 Ready Teddy has the right attitude. Certainly improved with two runs under his belt and has to be followed. 7 PG Persson got locked in last time, but has been a scratch after that.
