1 Attitude Superb was poorly drawn in the last run, but was still able to finish second after a strong final lap. From lane one, the horse should have a good chance to lead this from start to finish. 10 Tug Of War is good for this class and could reach a nice position directly despite this 20 meter handicap. 9 Venture Capital has very high capacity, but returns after just over a two years' break. 4 Balder Face comes with good form.

6 Mr Boenasera comes from a good victory and here we expect him to reach the front again. From there, the five-year-old should be seen with the highest chance of winning. 7 Olympic Steel passed the finish line with energy left last time and now he faces an easier opposition. 12 Proffs is developing nicely and last time the Propulsion-son finished with energy left despite an early gallop. 4 Panthere Noire is slow and would prefer quick pace here.

4 Kumla Fromentro has started his career promisingly and is the best horse in the first circle. We think she finds an early lead and from there she is the horse to beat. 11 Mamie's Survivor made the first start for a long while last time and seemed to need that race. The gelding is not bad and with that run under his belt, the form should be improved. 7 French Coffee has not been successful lately, but has shown nice speed resources. 12 Aston RC comes more and more with each start.

6 Lobella faces good conditions here and has a good chance to find the lead and in that position she will not be easy to defeat. 8 Never To Young had to attack early three wide last time and followed very well. Two runs under her belt now and has shown that she has V75 capacity. 4 M.T. Tomorrows Hope should have done better last time, but is gifted and got locked in in a heat to the Derbystoet behind Xia Lloyd on August 20th. 1 Shallow should get a good trip on the inner lane.

5 Wilma Express is still without a victory, but the mare has the right attitude and she has put in nice performances. If she can take over the lead from the stable mate, she could score her first win. 9 Edienne comes with two straight wins from the lead and has looked in good shape. 7 Ottens Korall has good capacity and is better than the results show. Quick starter, but can also do it tough. 4 Sweet Day had been a scratch before the last race, but still managed to win after a good finish.

4 Nugget Zon has been a scratch before this start, but if the form is reasonably good, he has a suitable task. Should be allowed to take over the lead and has a nice chance to win in that case. 12 Power Doc has competed in the Golden Division at the end and is moving down in class. 7 Laredo Boko is matched in tough V75 races and meets an easier opposition here. 5 Yuvaraj looked very nice when winning the comeback last time.
