RACE 1

Going: Good (Good to Firm in places)

Left handed, sharp with minor undulations. Fences generally regarded as fairly easy, but chases are normally well run and result in many more casualties than might be expected, novices often finding it one of the tougher jumping tests in the North. Going rarely gets that testing, nippy sorts generally at an advantage over gallopers who take time to quicken. Beware deceptive camera angle as runners swing into the home straight, those towards the centre often seeming closer to the lead than they actually are.

Pace Information: Very Weak

Folded as though amiss at Huntingdon since, but clear shout if shrugging that off, and expected to kick on in front.

Donald McCain

Brian Hughes

Fetches £100,000 after winning sole start in points and, following a wind up and fitted with a first-time hood, he posted arguably his best effort from 3 starts over hurdles when fourth of 11 on return at Warwick. Fast-tracked over fences but failed to figure at Kelso last month, however.

2 HAZARD COLLONGES (FR) (10) 82

4/P-4 7 11-12 | 75.3kg

Gary Hanmer

Shane Fenelon (5lb/2kg)

Would have every chance if reproducing something akin to 2022 form for Alan King but ran poorly in a hunter chase in March. Failed to complete in a couple of points since and was well held on his debut for another new yard at Huntingdon (19.9f, good) recently.

3 IMPERIAL RULE (IRE) (17) (D) 100

957-1051 7 11-12 | 75.3kg

Rebecca Menzies

Ross Chapman

Much improved sent chasing/handicapping when scoring impressively at Perth in May and left a couple of dismal efforts behind after 4 months off when doubling his tally at Sedgefield (19.3f, good) recently, forging clear after leading last. Remains lightly raced so can follow up from 6 lb higher.

4 HAWKSEYE VIEW (24) 85

326405-76 5 11-10 | 74.4kg

Joel Parkinson & Sue Smith

Peter Kavanagh (3lb/1kg)

Winning pointer placed twice over hurdles and made a perfectly satisfactory chasing debut at Wetherby last month, shaping as if better for the run on return having looked third best for a long way. Failed badly to build on that at Bangor since so difficult to know what to expect here.

5 SUITABLY SURPRISED (IRE) (4) 97

Jonathan England

Improver in handicaps, landing a conditional jockeys' race at Sedgefield (17f, good) last week before following up at Leicester (15.5f, good to soft) 4 days ago. Was a runner-up on her last start in Irish points so every chance she will continue her progress now sent chasing.

6 PURE SURF (IRE) (202) 81

Victor Thompson

Mr Sean O'Connor (7lb/3kg)

Twice successful over hurdles for Iain Jardine but big prices and no impact all 4 starts under Rules for present yard. Returns in a change of headgear and tough to see her getting involved.

6-4 Imperial Rule, 15-8 Suitably Surprised, 6-1 Just Gino, 10-1 Hawkseye View, 28-1 Hazard Collonges, 40-1 bar

TIMEFORM VIEW:

IMPERIAL RULE was a poignant winner at Sedgefield earlier in the month and Rebecca Menzies' 7-y-o gets the verdict to follow up with not many miles on the clock at the expense of progressive hurdler Suitably Surprised, who made it 2 wins in 4 days at Leicester on Monday and can continue her good work switched to the larger obstacles. Just Gino is starting to look a disappointment considering his cost but can fill out third here.

2	DUKE OF LUCKLEY (IRE) (30) (C)	95
	3221-6221 7 11-13 75.7kg Martin Keighley James Best Finished runner-up in pair of Worcester handicaps and, after 3 months off, landed a weak 5-runner handicap chase at Southwell (15.8f) 4 weeks ago, forcing pace and quickening clear from 2 out. May find things tougher from this career-high mark, however. Back up in trip.	v
3	FUSAIN (FR) (20) (CD)	88
	41133/43-7 9 11-9 73.9kg Patrick Neville Lee Edwards Dual winner over fences during early 2023, latterly over C&D. However, below best confined to just 2 starts last season and he went with no promise after 14 months off when last of 7 in handicap chase at Wetherby (19.4f) 20 days ago. Needs to take a marked step forward with blinkers refitted.	b+t
4	HIGH MOON (29) (C, D)	100
	1/P632P-P5 9 11-9 73.9kg Rebecca Menzies Ross Chapman Course winner who has developed a very patchy record but did hint at a revival following 6 months off when fifth of 15 in handicap chase at Carlisle (20f, good to soft) 29 days ago, no extra run-in. Lines up here with yard firmly amongst the winners if building on that now.	★
5	MOUNT GALLION (IRE) (29)	99
	48551P-26 6 11-6 72.6kg Mark Walford Jamie Hamilton Lightly raced in points and fair form when making breakthrough over hurdles in a Huntingdon maiden (15.8f) in March. Below that level on 2 of his 3 starts since but interesting if the market spoke in his favour now attentions switch to chasing.
6	DREAM JET (IRE) (14)	97
	52124331 6 11-6 72.6kg Brian Ellison Craig Nichol Fair hurdler who has enjoyed a good spell over fences, in recent months, doubling his tally in 4-runner handicap chase at Hexham (15.6f) 2 weeks ag, asserting run-in having jumped better. Respected back up in trip.
7	DREAMS OF HOME (IRE) (19)	88
	3P4524-99 8 11-4 71.7kg Martin Todhunter Sean Quinlan Largely struggled for Donald McCain last season and a change of stable/switch back to hurdling has failed to spark a revival this autumn. Given a big chance by the assessor returned to chasing with cheekpieces now enlisted and his stable have been amongst the winners.	s
8	RIBEYE (22)	99
	P24-3F273 9 10-4 65.3kg Peter Atkinson Danny McMenamin Dual chase winner who stepped up on his reappearance run at Hexham, when 6 lengths third of 7 in handicap chase at Newcastle (23.4f) 3 weeks ago. Merits a second look operating just 1 lb above the mark he last tasted success from.

TIMEFORM VIEW:

HIGH MOON has eased in the weights and hinted firmly at a revival after 5 months off when fifth at Carlisle 4 weeks ago. Entitled to be sharper now and with his yard firmly amongst the winners, he could be worth siding with to build on that effort here. Ribeye at the foot of the weights and Hexham-scorer Dream Jet head up the dangers.
