RACE 1

GBI RACINGGoing: Good to Soft (Good in places)

The course is a right-handed oval with easy bends, and is a flat, fast track about one and a half miles in length. There are nine fences to a circuit, some of them rather tricky, and the water jump was filled in during summer 2008, astroturf replacing the water. Huntingdon favours horses with speed over stamina, sluggards seen to best advantage only under extremely testing conditions.

HORACES PEARL was very useful in bumpers and sure to be well prepared for this hurdles debut, he's expected to outclass these. Jackstell also won in that sphere in Ireland and has transferred to an in-form yard, so he's an obvious threat, while L'Astronome ought to be capable of better given his Flat ability.

Capitalised on a falling mark in 10-runner handicap hurdle at Exeter (16.7f, good, 10/1) 15 days ago, settling better over a shorter trip. That form has the potential to work out so a 6 lb rise may not be enough to prevent the follow up.

5 KOUROSH (GER) (42) (D) 97
1F35P-P 4 11-8 | 73.5kg

Dan Skelton Harry Atkins (7lb/3kg)
Fair winner on the Flat in Germany who bolted up on his Wetherby hurdle debut last November. No real progress thereafter, pulled on in handicap at Kempton (2m) when last seen in April and met the same fate at Chepstow on his reappearance last month. Something to prove.

6 FRANSHAM (39) (D) 98

520-5 5 10-13 | 69.4kg

Gary & Josh Moore Niall Houlihan
Winner on the Flat in France. Definite promise to glean from first 2 starts over hurdles and he was too geed-up making handicap debut after 10 months off at Wincanton 27 days ago. That should have taken the freshness out of him and he's potentially well treated.

8 GOLD FOR ALEC (FR) (27) 99

Tom Symonds Callum Pritchard (7lb/3kg)
Showed improved form making a quick switch to handicaps when second in 9-runner event at Wincanton (15.2f, good, 11/1) 27 days ago. May do better still and has to be of interest with promising 7-lb claimer retaining the ride.

9 ACE ROTHSTEIN (USA) (376) 96
872/0- 6 10-11 | 68.5kg

Matt Crawley Tabitha Worsley (3lb/1kg)
Showed fair form when runner-up in a Huntingdon novice in March 2023 but failed to justify support in a Kempton handicap last November and produced a laboured effort on the Flat for this yard at Kempton recently. Plenty to prove.

The course is a right-handed oval with easy bends, and is a flat, fast track about one and a half miles in length. There are nine fences to a circuit, some of them rather tricky, and the water jump was filled in during summer 2008, astroturf replacing the water. Huntingdon favours horses with speed over stamina, sluggards seen to best advantage only under extremely testing conditions.

Stuart Edmunds Charlie Hammond
Once-raced maiden. Fifth of 13 in bumper at this C&D (good, 12/1) on NH debut 46 days ago, faring best of those held up. Should build on that.
