1 Nightlife In impressed a lot in his debut and was outstanding from first over . Might test the Örebro track here before a bigger race in a couple of weeks. 8 You Bow To No One won in a promising way as well, but has a tricky starting position. 4 Sotomayor Zon was beaten by two very good horses last time. Qualified in an impressive time and could be improved by the last race. 7 Lover Cook is well-bred and looked nice in the qualifier.

6 Irwin Zet didn't impress last time but was better the race before, even if he didn't quite live up to the expectations. Good chance to find the lead where he is the horse to beat. 3 Chocolatemere has looked really good in two starts. Late opening and energy left last time. Adielsson now! 4 Legacy Of Sound has done well in three races and not been empty at the end. Ready for victory now. 10 New Lane has competed in much tougher companies but has many horses to pass here.

10 King Of Cristal finished strongly last time and this time he meets easier opponents. This is an open amateur race though and anything can happen. 2 Edith R.C. is quite consistent and good. Well drawn and the driver who knows the horse well, which is a big advantage. 1 Rekord Bengt won from the pocket. Could get a similar journey here and repeat that effort. 8 Aston R.C. continues to chase the first victory ever and faces quite easy opponents here.

3 Viktor Roc put in a strong finish in his debut (13.6/800) but came too late. Perfect conditions here and regardless of the trip, he has a good chance to win. 1 Valla D'Campbell galloped with half a lap left last time. Will certainly get a nice trip from here and should be improved. 5 Gold From Heaven finished well in the same race as our pick last time. Tricky number but early choice without a mistake. 8 Campfire started as a two-year-old but was not ready then. Older now and makes his first start as a 3-year-old here.

1 Pennywise has not competed for a long time but has shown that he is good both in sulky races and under the saddle. Jonathan Carre is outstanding in this discipline and the victorious five-year-old has top chance despite the layoff. 7 Oligark Tooma showed good form second last when he won under the saddle. 9 Oti Star is not bad at all and likes this discipline. Ridden by a new jockey. 6 Cat's Majson has two straight victories under the saddle and is still undefeated in this discipline.

1 Gordon Brodde comes from victory and faces nice conditions again here. He is a very quick starter and has good chance to hold the lead. Once there, he is the horse to beat over this short distance. 9 Gatling has been matched in tougher companies for a longer time. Tricky draw but passes many opponents anyway here. 5 Frazze was on his way to victory last time but got defeated at the end. Tight starts and this short distance are an advantage. 7 Beentherekenthat followed well after a heavy journey last time.
