RANK

1 Lion Mearas is well-bred and now ready for his debut. Looked nice in the qualifier and interesting directly in this first start. Our pick. 6 Arnie Silvio is also ready for the first start of his career. Got a good draw and is interesting here. Contender. 5 Wannabe Zaz got defeated from the lead at Vaggeryd. Returns after a short break. Jepson now. Possible. 7 Queen Tobina finished well from the pocket last time. Opens well. An outsider.

2 Viking Snapper gave up after a trip from outside the leader against good opposition last time. Better task here and Carl Johan Jepson is a big advantage. Our winner in open race. 8 Dynamite on Time put in for a really good final lap at Vaggeryd. Early contender here with a similar performance. 6 Amelia Earhart finished quickly the final half lap at Eskilstuna. Certainly better with that run under his belt. Contender. 1 Fast Food is ideally drawn. Should not be overlooked with the right journey.

RANK

1 Katmandu Mearas has not been defeated yet. Won from the front last time without being empty, but did not look at his very best either. Returns from a break now. Capable. The horse to beat. 6 Kemper Boyd has developed really well at the end and put in a top race on the outside of the leader at Axevalla to score a shared victory. In the mix. 3 Proud came too late last time, but finished well and shown good form. Has to be considered. 2 Kengil is possible if the best horses would fail.

RANK

1 Gogo comes from a very fast finish last time at Eskilstuna and is developing well. Can open quickly with the circular start. Our winner. 4 Lainy KW finished nicely to a third place behind good horses at Solvalla. Seems strong and can do it tough. Early contender with a successful start. 2 Global Feather won easily from the lead last time. Hard to get there now, but should have a nice trip. Can win again. 8 Fuga Dal Bar got locked in with energy left last time. Possible with the right trip.
