2 Viewing Window gets the tip in this mediocre race. He already has three wins this year and this lane is nice. Can open fast and will certainly get a nice trip. 3 Molte Wibb comes from a fourth place and is certainly improved now. Could get an offensive journey. 12 Signi Burge took two straight victories last fall. Faces the best conditions money-wise here and should be considered early. 7 Oaxen has still not won after 26 attempts but in this company he is an early contender together with Mats E Djuse.

5 Konjaks Ursa had not raced for eleven months last time but was well prepared and won easily from the lead. Should be even better now. Good chance. 4 Sarek Gull has no victory yet this year but he has definitely been good at the end. Quick starter. 15 Grude Enok is probably the best horse in this race. He wins often but was not at his best last time and has been a scratch after that. Still an early choice. 14 Brage Bläsen was clearly improved last time and seems to be on the way up. Has to be considered.

15 Cab Frontline should have a nice chance to win here despite this double handicap. Has shown top form under the saddle at the end but is also a good sulky horse. 13 Mustang Racer has not won yet this year but he has done well at the end and is driven by Mats E Djuse again. 6 Bounced has had a good season and comes from a second place. Deserves a win. 10 Önas Spartacus comes from Mattias Djuse and now makes his debut for Jonas Bergdahl. The horse seems in good form and should be considered early.

8 Hagrid is our pick. We think he's the best horse here as long as he avoids a mistake. Has good speed and can open fast. Offensive journey? New driver. 2 Samedayasmilla has two runs under his belt and seems to be on the way up. Good lane. 4 Justin Bieber Sisu comes from a third place after a layoff and should be improved now. He is also fast from the start. 11 Bluejeans N.Go On won after a really good effort second last and could be an outsider here despite this starting position.
