6 Ja Ba Da Ba Doooo has had a pretty good year and gets the tip here. Was fourth last time after a layoff and should be better now. 5 Pastor Demon has a total of five victories this year, all in Finland. Hasn't won yet in Sweden after three attempts, but it could be his turn now. 7 Miss Lemonade took two straight victories in August. Now makes his debut for a new trainer. A bit hard to predict but should be considered early. 11 Livin High Sisu won last time but has been a scratch twice since then.

11 Eau de Noix comes with three straight wins and is undefeated together with Ville Koivisto. Difficult lane but should be considered early of course. 6 Credit L.A. was second with his trainer second last. He can open quickly and is our favorite for the lead this year. 5 Spitfire J.F. has not won yet after 16 races. Faces nice conditions here though and has shown good form at the end. 10 Second Breakfast scored a strong victory last time and was also driven by Mats Rånlund then.

7 Global Bam Bautin is our winner even though he hasn't competed since August. He faces much easier opposition than he is used to and we expect him to be well prepared. 13 Bollinger Bishop has a tricky number but comes from victory and is in good form. New driver. 4 Like di Serafino also won last time and has done well at the end. Good lane. 5 Helan lost a lot last time but should not be underestimated. Is quite fast from the start and our favorite for the lead.

10 Priscilla Håleryd is a very early choice. She has had a really good season and meets easier horses than she is used to. 14 Humble Stance hasn't raced in two months but is still an early contender. He has had a good season and showed earlier this year that shoes are no problem at all. 1 Bosse Bee has a nice task. Was third last time after the layoff and should be even better now. Good lane. 5 Franklin Zet won last time and is in good form. Could get a nice inside trip.
