Summary: KING COLE (2) is a model of consistency and serves as a solid base in this opening event, especially from his ideal starting berth. GEANT SARTHOIS (7) also arrives in good order and has the means to fight for victory judged on recent form, which can be said of FRANKLIN PARK (12) who is better than his recent results suggest. HEROS DES MOTTES (8) is another at the top of his game and ought to remain competitive in his bid to complete the hat-trick. LAST WINNER (3) isn't taken lightly.

Summary: IRISH NICE ELGE (2) was returning from a break when disqualified over track and trip earlier this month but he would have come on with the benefit of that outing and, judged on his best references, is undeniably capable of winning a race of this nature. He gets the nod ahead of consistent FALCON JET (5) and the enigmatic COOL KRONOS (1), for whom this will again be a question of wisdom. FILOU DE LARRE (6), who finished 3rd racing barefoot at Vincennes last time, isn't taken lightly in the same shoeing configuration.

ISERIA GRIFF (11), presented with the full confidence of her trainer, is ideally engaged at the limit of earnings and is likely to pose a threat. IRU FUSHI (10) remains very delicate but, having finished an encouraging 3rd last time, proved he retains the means to make his presence felt too. IDEM JIHEM (7) and HELIOS DES CHAMPS (8) complete the shortlist.

KANAKA DE BUSSET (1) is out of sorts but has the means to stake a claim, along with KOTKIE (2) who isn't hastily condemned despite a disappointing (7th) last start.

4. HALBI - Inconsistent trotter and a tricky customer at the best of times but has the means to make his presence felt, especially after a recent 4th over 2650m at Hyeres on 12 July. Lacks references in this shoe-fitting

5. HAMILTON SEVEN - Caught the eye with a fast-finishing (reassuring) 2nd over 2650m at Hyeres on 12 July. Will be a factor if confirming that form/improvement

6. HOTELLO DESBOIS - Has won 9 of his last 11 appearances - including 7 of his last 8 - and sets the standard after extending his winning sequence to 5 with victory at Saint-Pierre-la-Cour over 2600m on 14 July. One to beat

4. LINO DU POMMEREUX - Inconsistent performer although seldom far off the mark. Only 8th over 2750m at Cabourg on 12 July but will likely fare better here with David Békaert at the helm and in this shoe-fitting for the first time

5. LET'S GO DES PLANS - Has improved with each outing and confirmed as much by winning his last start over 2700m at Cluny on 7 July. More needed here but is not taken lightly

6. LIVINIO FLAC - Made marked improvement to open his account when producing a career-best performance over this course and distance on 17 July. Confirmation expected

7. L'AMIRAL GAGNANT - Tricky customer with undeniable means. Disqualified in back-to-back recent appearances, the latest over 2650m at Saint-Galmier on 30 June, but could make amends given the change in his shoe-fitting

Summary: LIVINIO FLAC (6) produced a career-best performance when opening his account over course and distance last week and need only to confirm that improvement to follow up, with his biggest challenge likely to come from WINNING ADMIRAL (7) if the latter can avoid disqualification. LINO DU POMMEREUX (4) and LET'S GO DES PLANS (5) also have the means to make their presence felt in the finish.

- 9. HAPPY LOVE - Hard-knocking veteran with sound references at this level, including a course-and-distance 3rd earlier this month (10 July). Should have a role to play

Summary: Off from September 2022 to April 2024, GALET DE RIVIERE (4) ran a good race at Wolvega in the Netherlands on June 22 and could score back on French soil. GRIZMAN (7) did not go unnoticed last time out over the course & distance and is a lively danger to the selection. HAPPY LOVE (9) is better than his last start suggests. GET UP DE VAUVILLE (6)'s last run is best to be forgotten and he could go close if back to his best.
