Summary: An impressive winner at this track in a Class 2 chase last time, ZARFLIGHT (2) will be well-fancied to follow up on that success. ROYAL SAGA (1) will likely give the selection the most to do. He was a good third in a Class 1 chase two runs ago at Auteuil and is a player. SULTAN PIERJI (3) goes back over fences after a decent third in a Listed hurdle last time. NARVAL (4) has ground to find with ZARFLIGHT (2) who beat him last time but warrants respect.

- 8. JEU ST PARIS - 5th last time, won before that in a claiming chase at Maure-De-Bretagne on February 25th in a claiming chase over 4200m. Others more likely

Summary: GRAND CLERMONT (1) should be too smart for his rivals after a win two runs ago at Angers and a good third at Auteuil in a Class 1 handicap earlier this month. BEL AMIGO (4) could be the main threat down in class having been placed in a Class 2 chase at this track previously. VIA DOLOROSA (5) and IVANOHE (3) are both capable of being involved if they get their jumping together as both are prone to mistakes.

He can score from likely main rival SAINT CRUSH (4) who has failed to complete on his latest two starts and was highly tried in a Listed chase before that at Pau. His fourth-placed effort in a Class 3 chase in mid-January gives him every chance of being competitive in this event. TOP DAAY (12) and FULLTIME SPEED (9) can battle it out for a place position.

KAPPA D'ESTRIVAL (1) won nicely on his sole start at Saint-Brieuc in early March, with improvement he can make the selection work hard. GALIDAM (5) was five lengths back in second place in the Saint-Brieuc race and can make things a lot more competitive this time on slightly better terms. FRENCH BARON (12) heads the remainder.
